Aunt Mag O'Neal Taken By Death At Ninety Years

11-11-55

Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Margaret Delphine O'Neal, 90, one of the county's oldest and best known citizens.

Known as "Aunt Mag," she lived in the Bonnie Chapel home of a granddaughter, Mrs. R. B. Keith. Death came at 5:15 p.m. last Thursday at Biloxi Hospital, where she had been for a week following a stroke.

Born at Bonnie Chapel, March 26, 1865, Aunt Mag was daughter of George and Martha Byrd.

Her father was one of the county's largest landowners and a founder of New Prospect Campground. He cut the first sapling for the tents and lighted the first fire at the camp.

Aunt Mag herself missed only a few camp meetings from the beginning. She attended this year and sat in the second row in front of the altar, where she had sat at the first meeting 75 years ago.

She lived in the old family home until 22 months ago, when her health no longer would allow her to live alone. She was a member of Bonnie Chapel Methodist Church and for many years had taught Sunday school.

Surviving are five sons, M. B. O'Neal of Saucier, J. B. and W. M. of Rt. 1, Ocean Springs, Dempsey of Pascagoula and P. H. of Gulfport; two daughters, Mesdames Bertha Williams of Vancleave and O. J. Santa Cruz of Biloxi; 24 grandchildren and 40 great grandchildren.

Services were held at the Bonnie Chapel church with the pastor the Rev. Brooks Allen officiating, assisted by a former pastor, the Rev. Lloyd Harding of Biloxi. Interment was in Byrd Cemetery at Bonnie Chapel.

Pall bearers were grandsons Wade, Dennis, Rupert and J. T. O'Neal and Ulmer and Eugene Wilson.

Place of death, Laurel, Jones Co., MS, from Michele Simmons Lewis, Ancestry.com family info.

Travis Byrd and family moved to TX. According to nephew Charles Byrd, his descendants live in Gladewell, TX.

8. PERLINA LUTISHA[7] BYRD (GEORGE WASHINGTON[6], ROBERT SYDNEY[5], WILLIAM SUTTON[4], GEORGE[3], WILLIAM[2], JOHN[1]) was born Mar 1879 in Harrison Co., MS[4], and died 1945[5]. She married EDWARD LEROY ANDERSON Bef. 1894, son of DANIEL ANDERSON and HENRIETTA STAFFORD. He was born Jun 1872 in Perry Co., MS[6], and died Jun 1934 in Forrest Co., MS[7].

Notes for PERLINA LUTISHA BYRD:
Tishie was listed as a member in early Mineral Springs Baptist Church records.

Census: 1900, Perry Co., MS #254 listed as 21 years old under the name Perlina L., living with husband Edward L. and their 4 children.

After Roy's death in 1934, Tishie moved to Texas with Herbert, Bernice, Ila, and Woodrow. Alma and Lena were living there already.

Notes for EDWARD LEROY ANDERSON:
LeRoy was a member of Mineral Springs Baptist Church, and from frequent mentions in the church records, was very active. The church record states that Roy died in June, 1934, but his son Woodrow was elected to serve out his (Roy's) term as executive committeeman in May, 1934.

Census: 1880, Covington Co., MS, 8 years old, under name Laroy.

Census: 1900, Perry Co., MS, Beat 5, #254, listed as 28 years old under the name Edward L., living with wife Perlina L. and 4 children, Ida B., age 6; Chalmus, age 4; Lena, age 3; and Tessie?, age 5 months.

Census: 1910, Forrest Co., MS, Edward L., age 38, wife Lutisa, age34; and 9 children: Ida B, age 15; Chalmas, age 14; Lenabelle, age 12; Bessie, age 10; Otho, age 8; Herbert, age 6; George, age 4; Alma, age 2, and Floyd, age 5 months.

Daughter Bernice Lucille (born 1917) should be listed on this census but is not. At some point, this family moved to Texas (perhaps Hardin/Orange/Beaumont areas) but returned to MS about the time of the Great Depression, which lasted from 1929-early 1940's. Family tradition states the family had very little to eat, mainly sweet potatoes according to stories Otho told to his children, Kathy Anderson Goss and George E. Anderson. Edward Leroy died in 1934. Son Woodrow Wilson graduated in 1935 from Forrest County Agricultural High School in Brooklyn, MS; he gave his address as Beaumont, TX.

Notes for CHALMERS HENDERSON ANDERSON:
Census: 1900, Perry Co., MS, Beat 5 #254, listed as 4 years old under the name Chalmus as a daughter??, living with parents.

From Forrest County WWI civilian registration card, 1917-1918. Uncle Cham's name is spelled differently on various records as Chalmus or Chalmers.

"Marines, ca. 1916-1921. . . Anderson, Chalmers H., Aprate Seaman." (FORREST COUNTY MISSISSIPPI WPA MANUSCRIPT A PRE-1940 HISTORY OF THE HATTIESBURG AREA, Strickland and Edwards, 1999, p. 181)

Uncle Cham loved to sing gospel music and for many years was a leader in singing conventions in south Mississippi. His signature and address in a 1919 song book indicates he lived on Julia Street in New Orleans. Sue Jo Anderson said he was married to a Mrs. Brady at that time.

Billie Don Anderson said Uncle Cham once lived and worked at a Ford Motor Co. plant in Norfolk, VA, and was married to someone there. Ruth Anderson Shilling (letter, May, 2002) confirmed Uncle Cham worked there in 1939.

Uncle Cham was a member of Mineral Springs Baptist Church and paid the electricity bill for the church several months in 1952 when funds were low.

Notes for BILLIE DON ANDERSON:
According to his sister Sue Jo, Billie was given the name Otho Albert Anderson, Jr. by his parents, but when his uncle Woodrow used to go to the house to visit and rock the baby, he sang, "Oh where have you been Billie Boy, Billie Boy? Oh where have you been, charming Billie?" The family added the name "Don" after his mother. In time, this was the only name people knew. He joined the Navy at the time of WWII under the name Billie Don and served in the South Pacific as a medical Corpsman. When he was ready to retire and needed to provide a birth certificate, he was shocked to learn there was no birth certificate with the name Billie Don Anderson.

Notes for INFANT TWIN SONS ANDERSON:
Twin sons were born prematurely, after Winnie spent the day painting the bed frame to freshen the room in preparation for the baby. The doctor scolded her and told her the paint (work and odors) resulted in the early labor. She said it was winter and cold, and that at least one baby lived several hours, after being placed in a shoe box and placed near the oven to keep him warm.

One of Winnie's last tasks in life was making tiny, warm shirts for the premature babies at the local hospital. She had learned from one of the nurses that they had trouble finding shirts small enough for these babies. Winnie sewed them and decorated them with care, and they were given to the hospital after her death.

Harry was originally named Lewis Carroll, after Dr. McLEOD, who delivered most of the Anderson babies. Later, Dad regretted he had never named a child for Col. Henry "Harry" Dalton, for whom he worked many years in Camp Shelby. Col. Dalton was a good friend and greatly respected, so Harry got an additional name.

Alice was a beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, and a loving friend to many.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Magnolia Garden Club, Chi Omega sorority at Ole Miss. She was an avid bridge player, active walker, awakening before sunrise for her 3+ mile daily walks. She was always the lady, always a welcoming hostess, always the good listener, always fun-loving and generous. Alice had a friendly word for everyone and was beloved by her grandchildren. Since her husband, Rocky was a former standout quarterback at Ole Miss, Alice was a lifelong football fan taking great interest in Ole Miss and SEC football. Although raised with a love for Mississippi Delta, Alice developed a deep love for the Gulf Coast and its coastal waters, sea-life and seabirds.
